JUANY GUZMAN, being duly sworn and subject to the penalties for perjury, deposes and says:

1. I am a Pennsylvania resident and a former driver/food delivery employee for the Defendants.

2. I am a named Plaintiff in this action. I submit this affidavit in support of Plaintiffs' motion to certify this matter as a class action pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23. and based on the laws of the State of New York, including the New York State Labor Law, with me as one of the class representatives.

12 CV 4339 (ALC)(JLC)

3. I submit this affidavit based on my personal knowledge and I am prepared and competent to testify to the matters set forth in this affidavit.

4. I previously have sworn to two affidavits in this action. I swore to an affidavit on June 26, 2012 in support of a motion for preliminary injunctive relief due to the acts of retaliation directed against me by the Defendants for participating in this action, and I also swore to an affidavit on September 24, 2012 in support of Plaintiffs' Motion for Preliminary or Conditional Collective Action Certification. I reaffirm all of the statements in my prior two affidavits.

5. My job responsibilities as a driver/food delivery employee consisted of showing up to The Fresh Diet, Inc.'s Brooklyn facilities, receiving instructions as to my delivery routes, obtaining prepared meals, and personally delivering them to The Fresh Diet, Inc.'s customers throughout New York City and the tri-state metropolitan region, including locations in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. After completing the meal deliveries, I would have to return to The Fresh Diet, Inc.'s Brooklyn facilities to check back in, complete required paperwork and return empty Fresh Diet bags.

6. Throughout my employment, my work was performed under the supervision, direction and control of Defendant Syed Hussain, who was the New York City-area Regional Delivery Manager for The Fresh Diet, Inc. and closely related companies. Defendant Hussain worked out of the Fresh Diet, Inc.'s Brooklyn facility and maintained an office there.

7. Defendant Hussain's assistant was Owen Dacres. Defendant Hussain referred to Mr. Dacres as the assistant manager.

8. Throughout my employment, I often worked significantly in excess of forty (40) hours a week, yet was never paid overtime compensation of one and one-half (1.5) times my regular rate of pay.

9. During my employment with the Defendants, I interacted with other drivers/food delivery employees on a daily basis. I therefore know that my own experiences were typical of how we were all supervised and compensated. Moreover, my duties, tasks and responsibilities were, in all material respects, the same of these other drivers and/or food delivery employees.

10. Based on my personal knowledge, which includes my personal experiences and observations, as well as my conversations with other drivers/food delivery employees, the following is true:

(a) All drivers who worked for Defendants in the New York City area (the "New York City-area drivers") were under the supervision, direction and control of Defendant Hussain;

(b) All assignments were received from Defendant Hussain, and the New York City-area drivers had to do the work they had been assigned;

(c) All New York City-area drivers had to report to Defendant Hussain at the beginning and end of each shift that they worked. At the end of their shifts, all New York City-area drivers had to report how many meals they had delivered, how many miles they had driven, and how many stops they had made. They also had to return empty bags. New York City-area drivers who did not comply with these requirements were subject to discipline, up to and including termination;

(d) All New York City-area drivers were expected to report to work at specific times. The schedules were created by Defendant Hussain. New York City-area drivers could not decide when to show up for work. If they did not arrive to work at the assigned times they were subject to discipline, such as reductions in wages often characterized as "fines" and "penalties," up to and including termination;

(e) None of the New York City-area drivers was at liberty to choose their assignments. They could not refuse to do the work that they were assigned;

(f) All New York City-area drivers had to complete the routes that they had been assigned and to report back to Defendant Hussain. If they failed to complete their assigned routes or if they missed an assigned stop, they were subject to discipline, up to and including termination;

(g) Defendant Hussain could change driver schedules and reduce or increase assignments at his complete discretion, without advance notice to the New York City-area drivers;

(h) All New York City-area drivers performed the same type of work. That is, each one showed up to The Fresh Diet, Inc.'s Brooklyn facility at his or her assigned time, each would receive his route assignment for his shift, each one would take the food that was prepared in the kitchen, by the kitchen staff, and then deliver it. There were no meaningful differences between the duties, tasks and responsibilities of the different drivers;

(i) The work was completely standardized. All drivers had to deliver the pre-prepared meals in the exact same manner, each meal had to be delivered in a bag provided by The Fresh Diet, Inc., and drivers then had to return empty bags to the Brooklyn facility. What any New York City-area driver did as far as delivering meals to customers was the same as what any other driver did, apart from their specific delivery route;

(j) New York City-area drivers could not arrange with one another to change their assignments without those changes being authorized in advance by Defendant Hussain;

(k) New York City-area drivers who attempted to change their assignments without first obtaining Defendant Hussain's approval were subject to discipline, up to and including termination;

(l) Any driver who deviated from ¶ 10(a)–8(k) was subject to discipline, up to and including termination;

11. In addition to myself, I am aware and have personal knowledge that the Defendants employed many other similarly situated drivers and/or food delivery employees and routinely failed to pay them overtime compensation of one and one-half times their regular rates for those hours that they worked in excess of forty (40) per week.

12. I have reviewed the list of drivers and/or food delivery employees attached as Exhibit A, which I understand was produced by the Defendants in this action on or about December 21, 2012. I recognize the majority of persons listed. These persons also worked as drivers/food delivery employees for the Defendants. The individuals whose names I recognize had the same duties, task and responsibilities that I had. Each person whose name I recognize reported to Defendant Hussain and was subject to his supervision, direction and control.

13. I fully understand my responsibilities and duties as a class representative, should I be designated as such, and particularly that I would owe a duty of loyalty to the class that I represent. I understand that this means that I must look after the interests of the class, and will undertake my best efforts to vigorously prosecute the action on the class members' behalf and ensure that the class is treated fairly and its interests are protected. I will make myself available to participate in all activities required to conduct the case in a professional and effective manner, including, but not limited to locating witnesses, documents, and evidence, submitting to depositions and examinations, and attending conferences. I will not compromise the interests of the class members for my own personal gain.

14. I declare under perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
